

1. Why did the Japanese choose to attack Pearl Harbor?
2. How long was the Japanese attack and how many planes were involved?
3. Give several facts about the morning of the attack.
4. Why were Americans surprised by the Japanese attack?
5. How did the attack change the United States?
6. Which countries were allies of Japan?
7. How did Americans, especially on the West Coast, look at Japanese Americans after the attack?
8. What did the U.S. government do to many Japanese Americans during the war?
9. Do you think this was a fair action? Explain.
10. Explain what President Roosevelt meant when he described the bombing of Pearl Harbor as a "day which would live in infamy."